

NEWS RELEASE

For release March 22, 2006

For more information, contact:
Debbie Anglin or Kinsey Cox at
Anglin Public Relations (405) 840-4222

F&M Bank Expects to Host Over 1,000 at Seventh Annual “Brisket at the Barn” Cook-Out

PIEDMONT, Okla. – F&M Bank invites bank customers and community residents alike to their seventh annual “Brisket at the Barn” community appreciation cook-out on Thursday, May 18 between 3 and 7 p.m. The event will be held in the barn directly behind the F&M Bank of Piedmont at 1216 N. Piedmont Road. Over 1,000 residents from the Piedmont/Surrey Hills community are expected at this year’s cook-out and 900 pounds of brisket will be served. The community is invited to stop by for free brisket, baked beans, hot dogs, chili and all the fixings.

Food is not the only attraction the bank offers. Chester the Clown will be shaping balloon animals, the bank’s Jolley Trolley will make snow cones and Mac Thompson, former owner of Mac T’s Restaurant, will be helping out behind the grill. With decades of professional cooking experience, “Anything that Mac touches is going to be good,” said Eric Anderson, Vice President of F&M Bank in Piedmont.

Last year over 1,000 community residents came to the barn which was constructed in 2002 by bank owners Terry and John Anderson and is now home to community activities like the cook-out and some school activities.

F&M Bank, “A neighbor you can count on,” has three locations: Piedmont, Surrey Hills and Rose Creek. F&M Bank serves their communities with full service personal and business banking products and offers the hospitality of a neighbor. To learn more about community events in the Piedmont, Surrey Hills and Rose Creek areas or about banking with F&M Bank, visit www.fmbankokc.com.

###